Dear [pet],

Today we honor your spirit and your journey into the pure loving light from whence you came

In this moment we are in awe of your beautiful energy as you return to the universe to continue your job healing our planet and all living beings.

Thank you for opening our minds, hearts and souls so that may accept that you are ready to go.

You are safe and you are loved.

Know that we will be OK.

My beloved fur soul, it is time.

Notice the crystal white light from above your strong furry head

Smell the breath of nature that you love so much

Hear the songs of angels, saints and ascended masters who have come to lift you

See your companions who have gone before and await your transition

Feel the loving energy between my palm and your paw

Release all that holds you here in the physical realm

My dearest [pet], open your heart chakra and feel the powerful love energy raising your body's vibrations

Feel your spirit body rising up from the tip of your tail, through your legs and up your spine

Look toward the universe to guide your beautiful spirit up through the top of your glorious head and into the magnificent beyond

My beloved [pet], take your final breath in peace, safety and love and release your fur soul into the Light.

Let it be. Namaste
